EYE AND EAR. DR. F. A. CADWELL, the eminent an skillful full operator on the Eye and Ear, who by his great success has attained high reputation, by removing difficult and dangerous diseases of these delicate organs that have hitherto baffled all skill to reach, has taken up his residence permanently in Chicago, and has published the 5th edition of his TREATISE ON THE EYE AND EAR. This work contains nearly 300 pages, embracing every variety of disease which the Eye and Ear are subject to illustrate throughout with numerous engravings. During the last year, Dr. Cadwell's residence has been in Chicago, and from the hundreds that have passed through his hands has been furnished with ample material of winning the public that success in his practice has been established beyond dispute. Confidences received, and cases reported in his treatise, from respectable parties, who testify in the strongest terms their high sense of gratitude for the cures effected, added to which may be read the names of numerous distinguished individuals as references, amounting to several hundred, are evidence sufficient to satisfy the most skeptical and incredulous, who regard their sight and hearing as indispensable to comfort and happiness.

Several portraits of persons who have successfully submitted to dangerous and difficult operations on the eye, will also be seen, and descriptions read with some interest, in this "Treatise." This work can be had gratis on application at the office of any paper containing this advertisement, or it will be forwarded by mail by enclosing a cent to pay postage on it. 3m10
